

Little Miss Laurie

If performing this piece,
please contact the composer at
dsmith@coppmail.com

From "Lullabies For Garrett"

David H. Smith Jr.

 = 90

Li - ttle Miss Lau - rie _____ went to the fair where she spied a young gazed in her blue eyes then hung his head low. He said la - ssie I Li - ttle Miss Laur - ie _____ turned right a - way. When the Lad tried to e - ver be go - in' to Be - lla - my fair, and you ha - ppen to la - ddie who was work - in' there. She said "Aye Lad I know you. Do you know ya from so long a - go. And its so good to see you for I slow her, she ans - wered him "nay!" I'm a la - dy who loved you, but your see _____ a cer - tain lad there, you can tell him a la - ssie who re -

6

11
know who I be? I'm a la - dy who loved you a lai - dee dai - dee _____ loved you once too, but the times they been chang - in' a lai - dee dai - doo lo - ver no more; just a poor heart that's ach - in' a lai - dee dai - door mem - bers him well, still _____ loves her young la - ddie a lai - dee dai - dell _____

17
instrumental solo

25
G
1.2.3.
8vb
he _____ You can tell him a la - ssie who re - mem - bers him well still _____
If you _____

31
loves her young la - ddie a lai - dee dai - dell.